CHRIST CHURCH CRUSADERS

This group of men, and others who work with them, is making a significant contribution to the life of our beloved Church. They are witnessing for Christ every week by the visits they make to the homes of our members and others. It is a joyous work. You are invited to join this fellowship. By next year we hope to have a group of one hundred men.

Sister Carrie

Taylor

SISTER CARRIE TAYLOR was called to her eternal home on Ash Wednesday morning at the age of 87 years, 3 months and 3 days. Her funeral service was conducted in the Church which she so deeply loved and to which she gave such a large measure of her life, on Saturday, March 13, at 2 P. M. Her Pastors were assisted by two former Assistant Pastors, the Reverends Roy L. Sloop of Hagerstown and Howard O. Walker of York, Pa., and three ministerial sons of the congregation—the Reverends Augustus Hackmann, Carl and Lawrence Folkemer. Special music was provided by Mr. Walter Ford at the request of the deceased, by Miss Thelma Viol, the Director of Music, the Adult Choir, and Mr. Albert J. Ruppel, Organist.

Any attempt to evaluate the services of Sister Carrie fails to do her justice. For forty years she gave herself with the utmost fidelity to the work of a Parish visitor and to the prosecution of all the work and worship of her Church. She labored under three Pastors and won the complete respect and esteem of each by her deep loyalty and invaluable services. She was also equally loved and appreciated by the entire congregation. Her beautiful Christian spirit, her untiring labors, her contagious enthusiasm have left an indelible mark upon the life of our Church. With the exception of Dr. Zimmerman, she made more calls, attended more services and won more souls for Christ than any other person connected with our Church.

She always insisted that it was a labor of love. The repeated attempts of her Pastors and our Church Council to provide regular material compensation were always declined even though her limited resources required her to live most frugally.

To perpetuate her memory, the beautiful altar in our Church was given by Dr. Zimmerman several years ago. More recently the Sister Carrie Altar Guild was organized to carry on a portion of the work to which she devoted so many years. We honor her memory best of all by reflecting her Christian spirit and loyal devotion.

We thank God for her life and rejoice in the blessed gain which has come to her.

A SOUL FOR CHRIST

We need not go to foreign clime,
Nor e'en outside our city line,
To win a soul for Christ.
For the man who lives across the way,
Or the girl we meet day by day,
May be our soul for Christ.

We need not speak in accents great,
Nor for more strength and courage wait,
To win a soul for Christ.
For God the Father doth us lead;
His Spirit gives us all we need,
To win a soul for Christ.

So let us then in faith go forth
From East to West and South to North,
To win a soul for Christ.
And when at night we lay us down,
We'll know a star is in our crown—
The soul we won for Christ!

SUBCONSCIOUS RESENTMENT

They tell us that if a rattlesnake is cornered it will become so angry that it will bite itself. That is exactly what all harboring of hates and resentments against others is—a biting of oneself. We think we are harming others in holding these spites and hates, but the deepest harm is to ourselves; for many times these resentments are dropped into the unconscious, the lid is shut down on them, and there they work their unconscious havoc. Unconscious resentments are often just as potent for disruption as conscious ones.

Dr. Zimmerman kept a book of clippings about the Diaconate.

He was a member of the Board of the Motherhouse at 907 Fulton Ave.
It was the first one established in the United States.

In the early part of the nineteenth century there occurred in Germany a revival of evangelical religion. There were established a multitude of institutions of Christian service. Among the most important is the Deaconess House, which claims to be a restoration of the apostolical office as it is described in the New Testament.
Theodore Fleidner at Kaiserwerth, was the first to establish one in a practical and successful manner. Other places were Berlin, Strassburg and Dresden.

A Deaconess is properly a minister of the church.

December 9, 1901 Hannah Broening and Carrie Taylor were consecrated as Parish Deaconesses.
